Volunteer lawyer group offers assistance at LEH library

TOMS RIVER - The Little Egg Harbor branch of Ocean County Library, 290 Mathistown Rd., will host Volunteer Lawyers for Justice: Disaster Response Program 10 a.m. to noon during Mondays in December.

The volunteer group will help people determine if they have legal issues that arose because of Superstorm Sandy. Based upon those determinations the group can offer free legal counsel and brief services.

Contact Garima Joshi for more information at gjoshi@vljnj.org or (862) 229-4550. Walk-ins are welcome.

Common legal issues related to Superstorm Sandy include:

- Insurance
- FEMA
- Landlord/Tenant Issues
- Contract Disputes
- Grants
- Bankruptcy/Foreclosures.

Bring the following items with you when you speak with the volunteers:

- Correspondence with FEMA
- Leases and correspondence with landlords
- Insurance policies and correspondence with insurers
- Mortgages and recent mortgage statements.
