UNATTENDED CHILDREN

The Library is a public place and the safety of all children is therefore a serious concern.

- Children under the age of 6 may not be left unattended in any part of the Library.
- Children 6-8 years old must have a parent or adult caregiver in the building at all times.
- Children 9-12 years old are welcome to use the Library unattended, but should not be left alone for extended periods of time.
- When unattended children under the age of 14 are present at closing time, staff will call the caregiver.
- If a child has not been picked up within 15 minutes after closing, staff will call the local police or county security.
