Yummy Summer Teen Fun: Cake Decorating at Ocean County Library Toms River Branch

TOMS RIVER – Cake is tasty, and an artfully-decorated one can make your mouth water before your first bite. Teens aged 13 to 18 can learn the art of cake decoration in a three-part program at the Ocean County Library Toms River Branch.

The series takes place Thursday, June 8, Thursday, July 13 and Thursday, August 10, all starting at 6 PM. They'll be led by YA Librarian Keira Clay, known for cake decorating skills during three years at Murphy's Marketplace in Tabernacle.

Teens will learn how to make and prepare icing colors, how to fill a piping bag, and how to master decorating techniques, then will decorate their own individual lunch box cakes.

All materials will be provided. Be sure to "dress for a mess." Each workshop can hold a maximum of six attendees.

Please register at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events for each program in this free series, sponsored by Friends of the Ocean County Library – Toms River.
