Ocean County Library Jackson Branch Closed for HVAC Repairs

TOMS RIVER – Ocean County Library's Jackson Branch will be temporarily closed due to failure of the HVAC (Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning) system.

The Library anticipates reopening to the public within the next two weeks. There will be updates about the status of the branch available on our website and via social media.

Items awaiting pickup at the Jackson Branch will be transferred as of July 9 to the OCL Manchester Branch, 21 Colonial Drive, (732) 657-7600, or at any branch that a patron wishes to request due to the closure.

All items on hold for customers will be extended through Monday, July 22. Jackson Branch patrons may return borrowed items to on-site drop boxes, or to any OCL branch.

Patrons who wish to send their holds to an alternate location or who have general questions may call the Library's main number, (732) 349-6200.

Patrons of the Jackson branch are welcome to visit our other Library locations to check out books and materials or attend programs. An Ocean County Library card may be used at all OCL locations.

Patrons may also access the Library's online resources, databases, eBooks, eMagazines, video and audio streams and digital classes, available continuously at <https://theoceancountylibrary.org>.

Keep up with Library programs and events at <https://theoceancountylibrary.org> and on Facebook, Instagram, X, YouTube, Spotify, and Pinterest.
